

Wilderness Rendezvous 2024 Camp Code of Conduct

I understand that:

- the Scouts Canada Code Scouts and Scouters enjoy a special and trusted place in my community because we have a long reputation of respecting our work and helping others.
- As a member, I am responsible for maintaining the good reputation of Scouts and Scouters in my community.
- Being a member of Scouts Canada is a privilege.
- All Scouters and other adult participants are bound by and must carry out their duties according to of Conduct

While participating in summer camp, I agree to be also be bound by this Wilderness Rendezvous Code of Conduct. I therefore promise that:

- I will remember my Scout Promise and will do my best to follow the Scout Law.
- I will use our camp surroundings wisely and respectfully. I will do my best to leave no trace.
- I will respect the culture and values of our camp, the authority of those responsible for its operation, and everyone who attends camp.
- I will not bully, abuse, threaten, or use violence against anyone.
- I will promote positive and healthy relationships between all people at camp.
- I will respect and not willfully or carelessly take or damage any part of the natural world, or the property of others.
- I will not control, possess or consume alcohol or any drugs.
- I will not be part of or permit any criminal behavior or activity.
- Because we are responsible for our individual and group behavior I will report any breach of this Code by me, or anyone else, to a person of authority.
- If I breach any part of this Code I am subject to discipline and may:
  - ❖ be required to compensate someone, and/or
  - ❖ lose all or part of my privilege to attend camp, may be asked to leave camp, and/or be a member of my Group or Scouts Canada.

I acknowledge that this Code is not intended to limit any person's obligations under the Scouts Canada Code of Conduct
