V. Personal Response – Note: Please ensure responses are neatly written and complete. If there is not enough room, or the penmanship is hard to read, please type and attach.

In a maximum of 200 words describe the outdoor activities you participate in (both in Scouting and outside of the program.) What is appealing about these activities? What have you learned as a result of participating in these pursuits?

In a maximum of 200 words describe your outdoor experiences in Scouting that have been most influential. What did you gain from these experiences? What knowledge/skill set have you gained that you could pass on to future generations of Scouts? How do you plan to pass on this specific knowledge?

In a maximum of 200 words describe a Scouter or mentor (please do not include names or specifics of the person) who influenced you to participate in outdoor activities. Describe, in detail, the characteristics this person possessed, how these inspired you to pursue outdoor activities, and how you will use this experience to lead future generations of Scouts.

VI. Letter of Recommendation – Please include an original letter of recommendation from a Scouter with whom you have interacted in an outdoor setting. The letter should describe in what capacity the Scouter worked with you, the skills you learned as a result of the experience, and their thoughts and beliefs as to how you will transfer this knowledge to others in the future as well as your volunteerism in the Scouting movement. Please note: The letter does not have to be written by a Scouter, but can be written by an adult (coach, teacher, Big Brother, etc.) who has led you in outdoor pursuits if the situation is applicable.
